Now in its 49th season, THE WASHINGTON CHORUS is noted for its critically-acclaimed performances and recordings of the entire range of the choral repertoire. The Chorus presents an annual subscription series at the Kennedy Center, the Music Center at Strathmore, and other major venues throughout the greater Washington area. The Chorus also frequently appears on the series of the National Symphony Orchestra. In addition, next June TWC will perform with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

The Washington Chorus is excited that 2009-2010 marks the second season under the leadership of new MUSIC DIRECTOR JULIAN WACHNER who continues the Chorus' reputation of excellence in the local and national community. The Washington Chorus has many education and community outreach initiatives that are integral components of its mission.

This season marks the second year of a new series at the Atlas Center for the Performing Arts—furthering the Chorus' vision to be an increasingly vital part of the Washington community.

Our Honorees
GAIL AND TOGO WEST

Gail and Togo West are truly an amazing couple! They have graced the civic and cultural life of Washington with their infectious enthusiasm and energy, and touched the lives of so many.

The Honorable Togo West, in addition to serving our nation as Secretary of the Army and Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs, Togo has lent his support to the George Washington's Mount Vernon, the Boy Scouts of America, YMCA, and historic St. John's Episcopal Church on Lafayette Park. He has also been an adult student of piano at the Levine School of Music.

Gail, like Togo an attorney, was formerly Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force. Her civic service spans the cultural and social-service spectrum. She has been active with historic Decatur House, the D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities, Fisher House, the Washington National Cathedral, and the National Museum of American History.

The Washington Chorus salutes our friends Togo and Gail West for their unflagging commitment to our nation's capital city.

Under the gracious patronage of The Ambassador of Singapore to the United States of America

Heng Chee Chan
